

Vanessa Johnson-McCoy is a write-in candidate, so anyone who supports her platform should be informed how they can vote for her:

1. On the ballot, find the office for which the candidate is running. (City Clerk)
2. Print or write the candidate's name (Vanessa Johnson-McCoy) on the Write-in line for that office (City Clerk).
3. Fill in the oval next to the candidate's name.

Write-In

Additional Instructions

On a paper ballot:

- Write the name of the write-in candidate on the line provided in a particular race.
- Mark the corresponding oval

In single-vote races, no other votes can be cast in a race where a write-in vote was cast. In multiple-vote races, a voter may cast one or more votes for write-in candidates, but is limited to the number of votes allowed in a given race.

On a touch screen:

- Press the “write-in” box at the bottom of the list of candidates. A keyboard will appear.
- Type a name using the letters on the keyboard and space key to separate the first and last name.
- When finished, press “OK.”
